Overview

Pikey Trek is situated in the Everest region of Nepal. Pikey Hill (4,065 m) is one of the nontouristic Eco trekking routes in Nepal. Pikey Trek offers you breathtaking sunrise and sunset views during good weather. The trail passes through some of the most beautiful Sherpa's unique settlements of the lower Everest region. Pikey Peak trek takes you right into Sherpa homeland which is the Solukhumbu or Lower Everest. You will emerge yourself in the local culture by spending a night at a local Sherpa homestay. Also, a visit to the local school and the nun monastery of Thupten Choling should not be missed. Because this area is hardly visited by trekkers you will be able to discover authentic Nepal and have plenty of opportunities to meet the friendly locals. At High Camp, you wake up early in the morning to hike for a breathtaking sunrise view from the peak.

From the summit, you have magnificent views of the snowy peaks of the Himalayas. Subsequently, Sir Edmund Hillary stated that Pikey Peak offers the most beautiful view of Mount Everest.

Days of Itinerary

Day 1

Arrival at Kathmandu (1,350m).

Upon arrival at Tribhuvan International Airport in Kathmandu, you will be greeted by a representative who will drop you off at our hotel. After checking in, you can take a rest or stroll around the streets of Thamel, a tourist hub in Kathmandu. In the evening, there will be a welcome dinner where you will be served excellent Nepalese cuisine. Overnight in Kathmandu.

Day 2

Sightseeing in city, and prepare for trek.

After breakfast, tour several of the best historical and spiritual attractions in Kathmandu. Some of these landmarks are World Heritage Sites including the historic Durbar Square, the sacred Hindu temple of Pashupatinath, the famous 'Monkey Temple' (Swayambhunath), and the Buddhist shrine (Boudhanath), one of the largest stupas in the world. At noon, there will be a pre-trip discussion where you can meet our trek leader and other team members, as well as ask any questions you might have. Overnight in Kathmandu.

Day 3

Drive to Dhap and trek to Jhapre.

Start the day with a long (8-9 hour) drive from Kathmandu to Dhap. From a ridgeline south of Dhap, you'll start the trek. As you near Sigane, the mountains that you will get to know very well come into view — the peaks of the Numbur Himal section of the Himalayan Range. The trail from Sigane follows a road under construction for the first couple of hours. The first village you reach is called Jared (2920 m), perched above a deep valley with nice views of Everest and Numbur Himal. There's a pretty little gompa and stupa here, and this will be your stop for the night.

Trek to pikey base camp.

After Japre, the trail climbs up to a grassy ridge at Bhulbhule. There's a single lodge with no name and nice views of the Everest range from here. Soon after Bhulbhule, the trail splits and you'll turn right to Pikey Peak. You'll pass some old yak houses and a long mani stone wall. The trail then contours the hillside below Taklung Danda and goes through a beautiful forested trail. There are many rhododendrons here along a level path (which you can see in bloom if trekking in the spring). As you leave the forest, it's not far to Pikey Peak base camp, about 2 hours away. From here, it's a short climb to the summit at 4065 m. Unless you have an unusually clear evening, it's better to climb to the summit in the morning for sunrise.

Day 5

Hike pikey (sunrise) and trek to Loding.

Start the morning early. Follow a gradual trail to the summit, covered with prayer flags. The views are breathtaking! If the weather is clear, you'll be rewarded with panoramic views from Annapurna to Kanchenjunga. From the top of Pikey Peak, you'll follow a ridgeline that starts flat and then steepens as you enter the forest to Jase Bhanjyang, where breakfast will be waiting. After breakfast, you'll continue your walk down to Loading, which passes through some steep sections in the forest. At Loading, you'll have a couple of choices for accommodation which are simple and charming.

Day 6

Trek to junbesi from loding visit to thuptenchhyoling monastery.

Start the day by heading down the ridgeline for breakfast at Jase Bhanjyang. There are a few options for the descent to Junbesi. The most likely is a stunning shortcut trail that leaves the ridge shortly after Jase and descends steeply through spectacular old-growth forest to Traktor. This path meets the Everest Base Camp trail coming from Jiri. The tea houses from here are a little more developed, and you're likely to meet a few other tourists for the first time. From Traktor, it is a couple of hours on a lovely trail to Junbesi. Junbesi is a traditional Sherpa village sitting at an altitude of 2675 m and is the cradle of Sherpa culture and architecture. The Sherpas consider the Solukhumbu a sacred valley. In this remote part of Nepal that borders Tibet, Buddhism flourishes and there are numerous Buddhist monasteries along the way.

Trek to Taksindhu from junbesi.

Today we will hit the trail bound for Taksindu. Cross the river at the bottom of town and climb through the forest up to Salung, from where there are views of Mount Everest, Chamlang, and Makalu, weather permitting. There are also gorgeous views out across the valley to Chiwong Monastery and down towards Phaplu. Continue on the trail, contouring, and then dropping down to a stream before a short climb up into Ringmo, famous for its apple orchards and interesting apple products such as apple rakshi (alcohol), cider, and apple pie. From here, there's a final short climb to Taksindu La, from where there are again great mountain views, and then a short descent to the Taksindu Monastery and your lodge. The Taksindu Monastery was built in 1946 and is usually open early morning or late afternoon. Please make sure to leave a donation if you visit

Trek to Phaplu via chiwang monastery.

Today leave the main trekking route again and take a beautiful path down to Phaplu through the forest. There's also the option of hiking up to Chiwong Gompa, perched high on a cliff overlooking the valley. This monastery was founded in 1923 and has magnificent celebrations for the Mani Rimdu festival in autumn. Continue on down into Phaplu and celebrate the completion of a great trek at your cozy tea house.

Day 9

Fly back to Kathmandu from phaplu.

Today we will bid farewell to the mountains and board our vehicle for the drive back into the Kathmandu Valley. In Kathmandu, we take you to any hotel of your choice. We can recommend hotels or leave you to explore Kathmandu on your own.
